

RECREATIONAL PASSES

Do I Need a Pass?

If you leave your vehicle while recreating at one of our fee sites, you must display a Red Rock Pass or a Federal Recreation Lands Pass in your vehicle. Red Rock Passes cannot be transferred to multiple vehicles. Neither pass grants access to state parks or concessionaire managed areas.

Where Can I Get a Pass?

Red Rock Passes

- Purchase daily and weekly passes from vending machines at fee sites (credit card only).
- Purchase daily, weekly, and annual passes at the Red Rock District Visitor Center or online from Recreation.gov (rec.gov/sitepass/Coconino). When purchasing online, your license plate number will verify your pass, no printed pass will be generated.
- Purchase hangtag passes at local vendors, concessionaires, Sedona Chamber of Commerce, and the Red Rock Ranger District Visitor Center.

Federal Recreational Lands Pass - America the Beautiful Pass

- Purchase passes at the Red Rock Ranger District Visitor Center, Sedona Chamber of Commerce Visitor Center (annual only), from the USGS (store.usgs.gov/pass), or at any national park or monument.

Daily or weekly passes are available at all fee sites.

RED ROCK PASSES - HANGTAGS

DAILY $5
One calendar day

WEEKLY $15
7 consecutive days

ANNUAL $20
12 consecutive months

GRAND ANNUAL $45
12 consecutive months. This pass includes entry to Call of the Canyon (West Fork Trail), Crescent Moon Ranch, and Grasshopper Point and is only sold at those locations or the Sedona Chamber of Commerce. The Grand Annual is only available as a hangtag.

FEDERAL RECREATIONAL LANDS PASSES

ANNUAL $80
Available to anyone 16 or older

ACCESS LIFETIME Free
U.S. citizen with disability

SENIOR ANNUAL $20
U.S. resident 62 or older

SENIOR LIFETIME $80
U.S. resident 62 or older

MILITARY Free
U.S. current-members and their dependents, Gold Star families, and U.S. military veterans

4TH GRADERS Free
U.S. resident in fourth-grade year